

Purpose of the Role

To write and record engaging and Gospel focused videos for posting in OEC's social media channels. The purpose of this social media is to encourage Christians and to engage non-believers in thoughtful ways.

Character Expectations

- Profess faith in Christ and are an active member of an OEC Congregation and a Growth Group.
- Have a humble and teachable spirit and be willing to listen to and learn from others.
- Model godliness for those they lead, setting an example in their speech, conduct love, faith and purity.

Competency Expectations

- Communicate clearly both in person and through digital means in a timely and consistent way.
- Love to think clearly and share with others.
- Confident to write material and and receive appropriate, constructive and positive feedback.
- Be able to present to camera (and willing to be trained in how to record themselves)
- Work well with other teams in OEC.

Roll in Practice

- Work with the Cross Purposes team leader to produce approximately one recording per quarter (or as arranged with coordinator)
- Write a first draft of your recording and submit it to office@oechurch.org.au by the due date for draft script.
- Once appropriate edits have been made, record (or arrange assistance in recording) material and send to office for editing and distribution.
- Edit written submissions so that they are ready for recording.
- Attend and engage in the OEC Team Leader Forums twice a year.

Reach - Cross Purposes Contributor (2026)

Appointment and Commitment

- The Cross Purposes Contributor is a volunteer position. The Cross Purposes Team Leader will set rosters for publication, and the Cross Purposes Team Leader Reach Minister reserve the right to veto an article if required.
- Cross Purposes Contributors commit to serving in the role for at least 12 months, though it may be longer.

Leader Support

Cross Purposes Contributors are supported by the staff member responsible for the Reach ministries of OEC and their Congregational minister.