

Talk for 12 Podcast

Purpose of Role

Talk for 12 is a podcast hosted by OEC women for OEC women to teach, encourage and equip women as they live out their faith in Jesus.

The role in practice

This venture draws on the experience and skills that God has equipped women at OEC with to serve him and his people. Team members work with other podcast team members under the leadership of the Talk for 12 Team Leader to produce fortnightly 12minute podcast episodes, scheduled for 25 weeks of the year.

Women serve as episode hosts and contributors; in programming, recording, editing, scheduling, promoting and roles yet to be discovered!

Required training

- This will vary depending on the type of volunteering. Support and training will be provided where needed.

Commitment:

- Varies depending on the role - some will be one-off; others involve longer-term service

What will happen next

This is an expression of interest. You will be contacted by a member of the Talk for 12 team to chat about how you might be involved.